

SOCIAL CHRONICLES

A DISTANCE DIGITAL LIBERAL ARTS COURSE FROM COPLACDIGITAL
TO BE OFFERED FALL 2018 | 11 AM - 12:15 PM EASTERN TIME, TUESDAY & THURSDAY

In this course, students from various COPLAC institutions will design websites archiving historical events and community engagement at local organizations. Each student will identify symbols that represent very important moments and memories related to the organization. They will also use music via sound and lyrics to represent the organization's history. Students will research history and culture, volunteer to engage the community, and showcase their personal experiences and revelations. A synchronous digital classroom experience will allow students to creatively use multiple digital tools and assignments to chronicle personal community-centered experiences.

Instructors

Tina Holmes-Davis, Assistant Professor of Music Education, Georgia College
Chiquita Howard-Bostic, Associate Professor of Sociology, Shepherd University

Nominations from faculty and administrators will be accepted until Friday, March 16, 2018.
